

Riverbank Tales

Audition Information 2027

Aquatarium is seeking performers for our upcoming Production of Riverbank Tales

Riverbank Tales is a charming, short play for young audiences, written and directed by Seanna Kennedy. It will be presented as part of The Aquatariums March break Mermaid Experience. The play features Grey, a mermaid with a gift for storytelling and her besties Goose the Otter and Blueberry the Beaver, as they tell stories about her mermaid friends from around the world using humour, music, puppetry and other theatre magic!

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

All rehearsals, performances and promo will take place in Brockville, Ontario. If you live outside of the area, shared housing will be provided for the duration of the contract.

Our first round of auditions will be by self tape. Please submit your headshot and resume to receive instructions for your tape.

Submission emails must be received by October 8th

Self tape auditions must be received by October 12th

ENCHANTING ENCOUNTERS

Glow

We encourage submissions from people of all genders and ethnicities, 18 years and older.

This show will have multiple performances throughout the day rotating between two casts, one cast has already been contracted but we are currently seeking the following roles:

GREY: The Mermaid

GOOSE: The Otter

BLUEBERRY: The Beaver

GREY UNDERSTUDY: To cover Grey the mermaid for both casts

CRITTER UNDERSTUDY: To cover Blueberry and Goose for both casts

Please note: that due to existing costuming constraints (Greys tail) the performers playing the roles of Grey and Greys Understudy will need to be between 5'6" and 5'9" in height and have a waist measurement of 28-34 inches. No such requirement exists for Goose/Blueberry/Critter Understudy and we encourage submissions from all sizes.

This is a non-union, paid production.
